from timber harvested from national forests within the state to the counties where the forests were located. These amounts were divided equally to be used for public schools, public roads and other public purposes.

The Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000 (PL 106-393) changed the determination of the federal forest distribution amounts. Counties were given the option of a “full payment amount” based on a share of the state’s highest three years from 1986 to 1999 or an amount based on actual receipts. All counties opted for the “full payment amount.” The counties receive payments of Title I and Title III. The entire distribution of Titles I and III is distributed after the end of the federal fiscal year. This is in effect through federal fiscal year 2006.
